

"Euniciforms" of OCSD Ocean Monitoring Program antennal ceratophores large, obvious; with 2 frontal and 5 occipital antennae antennal ceratophores small, inconspicuous; 1 - 5 occipital antennae; frontal antennae lacking

Onuphidae
 (see "Key to Onuphidae of Pt. Loma")

Eunicidae

with 5 occipital antennae with less than 5 occipital antennae bring to specialist peristomium with tentacular cirri peristomium without tentacular cirri

Leodice

Marphysa

branchiae and subacicular hooks otherwise branchiae begin on setiger 3 and continue to about setiger 34 or 35, first pair simple then pectinate; subacicular hooks yellow, present from setiger 23-25 anterior compound setae with both spinigers and falcigers

bring to specialist

anterior compound setae spingerous anterior compound setae falcigerous

Marphysa disjuncta

Marphysa conferta

Leodice americana

