

Bathyleberis californica
Cylindroleberididae

Baker 1979

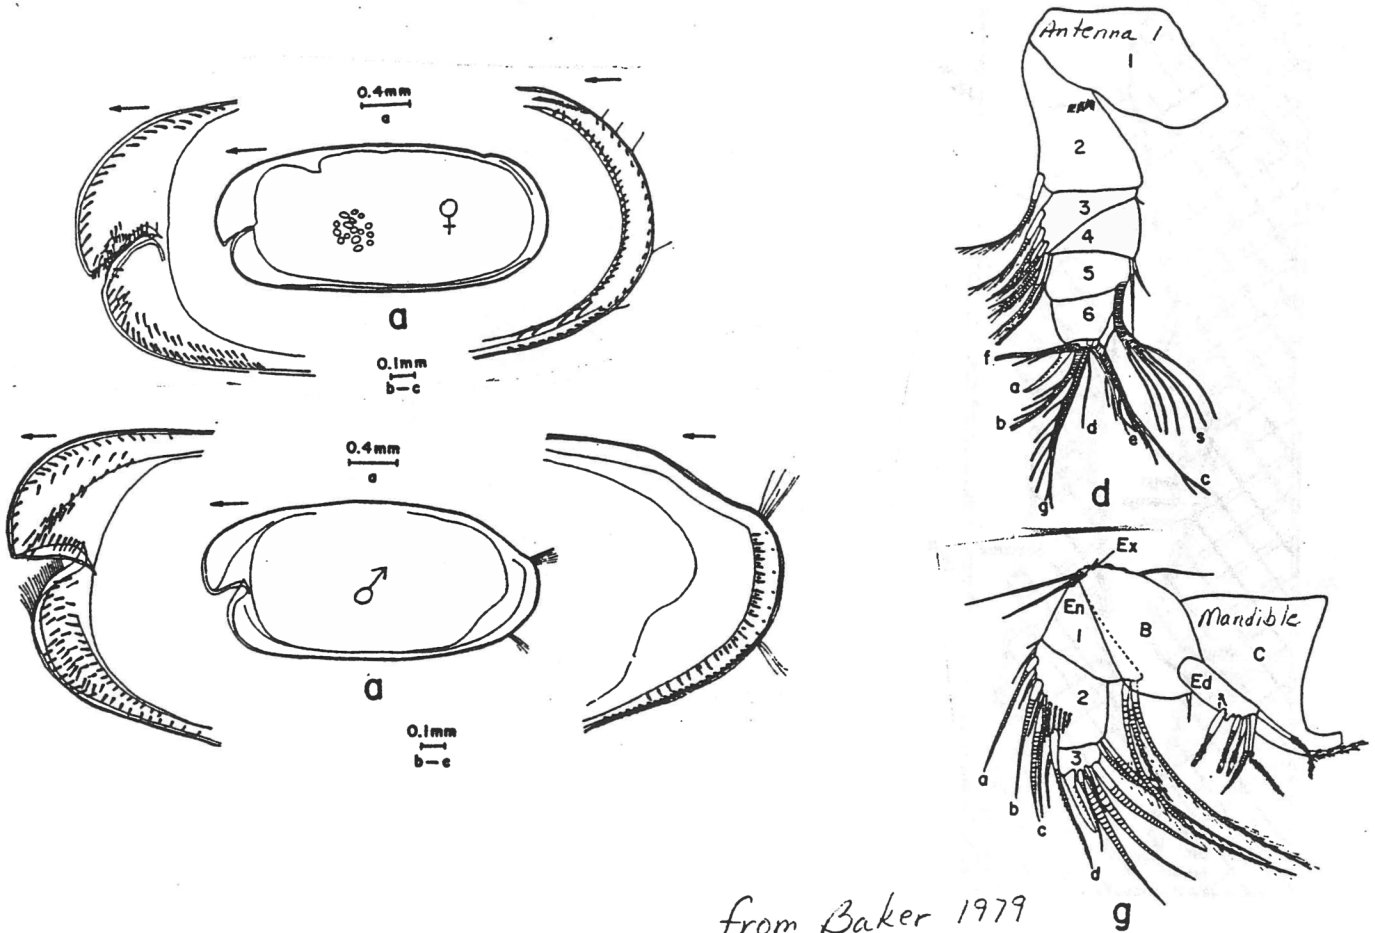

Voucher #OC 28

August 15, 1983

Literature Citation: Baker J.H. 1979. Three species of Bathyleberis (Ostracoda Myodocopina) from southern California, U.S.A.). Crustaceana 36(3):287-301.

Synonymy: Bathyleberis sp. C - General usage for SCCWRP and SCAMIT associated organizations 1975-1979, to Avoid Nomen Nudem usage based on Ph.D. dissertation by Baker 1975.

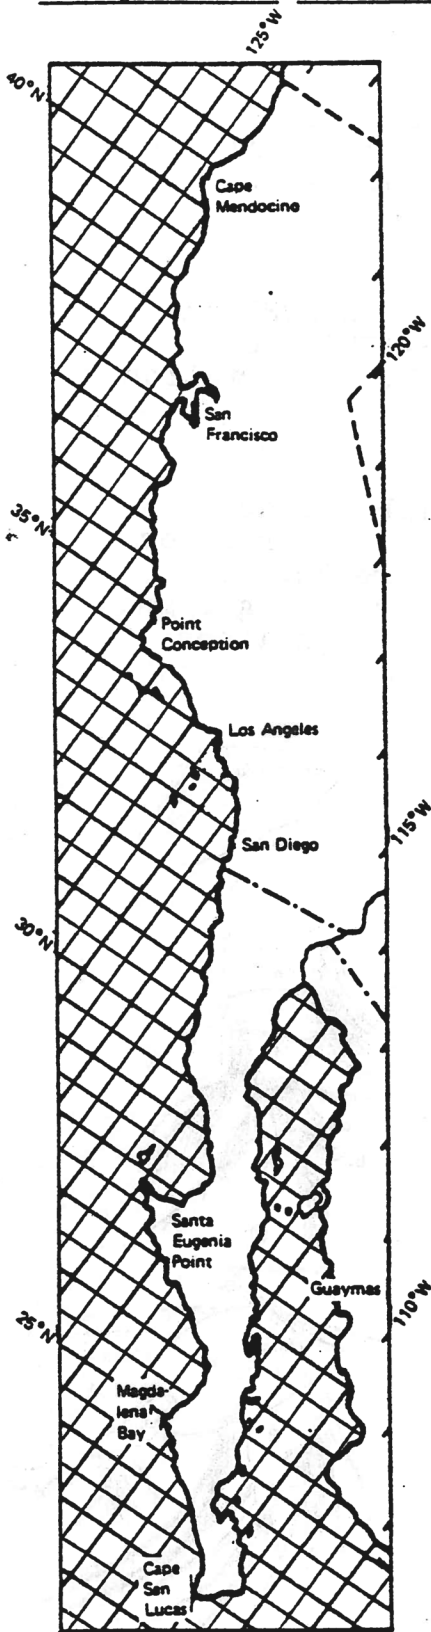

Primary Diagnostic Characters: Basic Cylindroleberididae for southern California. Must count bristles on Ant. 1. (d. Bristle must be present for Bathyleberis see noted characters on figs. and refer to included tabular guide comparisons (also use Baker 1979).

from Baker 1979

Bathyleberis californica

Baker 1979

Pertinant Literature:

Sexual Dimorphism: Male more elongate than female, dorsoposterior angle indented, tufts of posterior hairs.

Depth Range: 9.1-401.4m

Distribution:

From Baker 1979, Pt. Conception to San Diego