

Heptoplandidae sp A

CITY OF SAN DIEGO VOUCHER SHEET

Species: ~~Planorbiniidae sp 501~~
Authority: ~~Polychaeta sp 501~~ Common Synonyms:

? Flatworm #4 MEC
? Leptoplanidae sp A Phillips
? Juv Plehnia caeca? per RGW 2/20/96

Taxon:
Date:
By:
Voucher Specimen(s):
Station Date Storage Location Voucher#
B 7(i) 7-28-94 106 M FID #16
EMAP 946 8-22-94 106 M
20150 7/21/95 356 FT.

Characters: [used in lab to confirm ID]

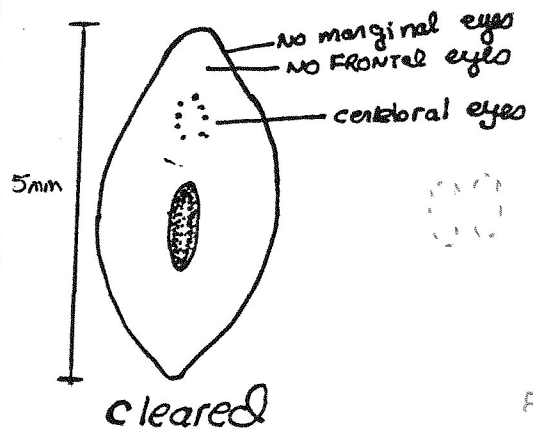

Uncleared

Thick bodied flatworm - "Fleshy"
No color pattern - ENTIRE spm cream white Posterior end somewhat tapered
Lateral margins smooth or lightly ruffled

Cleared

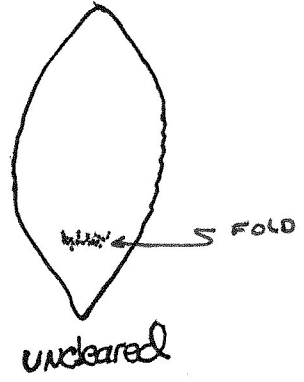

a series of eyes (each forming an arch)
which together approximate an oblong
No marginal eyeo - margin clear Pharynx oval, smooth, small & actually ruffled according to Phillips w/ob

Illustration: [cite source(s)]
A 2 - 10 May 1995

- eyes around
"brain
lobes"
on larger specimen
E 6 mm

Full Description: [cite source(s)]

← small as

Related Species: [include character differences]

Stylocus exiguus - uncleared, both are thick + fleshy. S. exiguus has rounded anterior + posterior ends, marginal eyeo and ruffled pharynx.

Comments:

cleared, specimens have few to many small dark speckles of pigment (?) scattered throughout the body.

References: