

Lysidice – 3 occipital antennae/ no tentacular cirri / no branchiae

The illustration below from www.ceab.csic.es/~dani/Lysidice.html as an example of the genus.

Two specimens from CSD PLOO B-11 rep.2 26Jan07 88m passed to RCR for FID by RGV on 070423 not identified beyond genus/ awaiting LLL input and comments/ The species illustrated below was reported by Fauchald 1970 from shallow water (intertidal rocky and shallow subtidal) in western Mexico.

Lysidice ninetta. A.- Anterior end (dorsal view). B.- Buccal equipment. C.- Labrum. D.- Acicular chaetae. E.- Falcigerous compound chaetae. F.- Limbed capillary chaetae. G.- Aciculum. H.- Pectinated chaetae. Scale bars in microns.