

Bathymedon roquedo

Diagnostic Characters:

- Rostrum long, reaching more than half way along article 1 of antenna 1, and exceeding lateral cephalic lobe.
- Rostrum stout, nearly horizontal, anterior surface curving downward forming obtusely acute point
- Eyes present, small, yellowish

Illustration:

1962

BARNARD: OEDICEROTIDAE

353

Fig. 2. Bathymedon roquedo, n. sp. ?Male, holotype, 5.5 mm, sta. 3727: A, head; B, mandibular palp; C, D, gnathopods 1, 2; E, F, G, H, I, pereopods 1, 2, 3, 4, 5; J, telson.