

Photis linearmanus

Diagnostic Characters:

Male:

Coxa 1 not produced and without fan of setae

G1 concave

G2, palm long, oblique, with two small, blunt palmar teeth, and a small defining spine

G2, article 6 without defining tooth or process

P4, articles 4 and 5 normal, slender

Female:

unknown

Illustration:

FIG. 2. Photis linearmanus, new species. Adult male (3.4 mm) HOLOTYPE. Lateral views: whole body, mandibles, and maxilla 1; other views medial. Scale 0.1 mm.