

Janiralata occidentalis

By: Lisa Haney

Class Malacostraca, Subclass Eumalacostraca, Order Isopoda, Family Janiridae

DIAGNOSTIC CHARACTERS:

Body oblong – ovate

Head wider than long

Anterior margin of head sinuate but not produced in a frontal median process

Eyes large and round; dorsally placed

Edges of pereonal segments look like parapodia with many bristles coming off the side.

ILLUSTRATION:

