

Species: Munna stephensiMuseum Number: 83Describer: GurjanovaDate: 1938Family: MunnidaeCommon Name: IsopodSource: Proceedings of the National Museum Vol. 102 Marine Asellote Isopodsby MenziesMarin County, California

Synonymy: _____

Location: _____

Distinguishing Characteristics:

Eyes on short immovable stalks, preorbital lobes strong. Pleotelson with two to three large 2-pointed setae on each side anterior to uropods. Body covered with setae, which are especially evident at posterior border of pleotelson. Ventral uropodal branch with a strong posteromedially directed spinelike tooth at posteromedial angle, in addition to several smaller teeth.

