

Parasterope hulingsi

Class Ostracod, Order Myodocopida, Family Cylindroleberididae

DIAGNOSTIC CHARACTERS:

Carapace: Elongate; greatest height at mid-point posterior prolonged, dorsoposterior truncated, ventroposterior broadly rounded, dorsal margin depressed anterior to mid-point.

Ornamentation: Surface smooth

Infold: Area dorsal to rostrum with about 57 short bristles, area ventral to incisor with about 27 short bristles, remainder of posterior infold obscured.

Selvage: Consists of narrow ridge with narrow lamellar prolongation with smooth margin; prolongation broadening in area below incisor.

Muscular Scars: Indistinct circular pattern of 14 ovoid, ventroanterior to mid-point.

DIAGNOSTIC CHARACTERS:

