

Heart Urchins of the CSD Monitoring Programs

Note of caution - juvenile Spatangus californicus can be confusing as they are often more heart-shaped than the adults and can have long spines. However, there should be a complete lack of any type of peripetalous fasciole and they will be found in deeper water than Lovenia with which it could possibly be confused.

- M. Lilly 9-06